

Labor Trafficking Conference

Wednesday & Thursday, Oct. 24-25, 2018
The Galt House, Louisville, KY

Conference Objectives:

- Increase capacity of organizations to address labor trafficking
- Address trends specific to labor trafficking (data, emerging research, cases)
- Highlight and problem-solve challenges related to labor trafficking

Plenary, workshop, and display topics will include:

- Addressing labor trafficking in state courts
- Domestic labor trafficking
- Exploitation in supply chains
- Intersections between forced engagement in criminal activities and labor trafficking
- Labor trafficking typologies
- Leveraging government agencies in labor trafficking cases
- Proactive, targeted outreach and investigations on labor trafficking, and
- Screening and interviewing potential labor trafficking victims, among others

Sponsorship
Opportunities Available

cclou.org/labor

REGISTRATION ONLINE @ CCLOU.ORG/LABOR

$200 early bird starting May 1 | $225 after September 1

Hosted By:

The Bakhita Empowerment Initiative,
a Catholic Charities of Louisville Program to Combat Human Trafficking
The Southeast Regional Human Trafficking Advisory Group, an Initiative of the Administration for Children and Families Region 4 Office

