

2018 Labor Trafficking Conference

WORKSHOP SCHEDULE

October 24-25th, 2018 / Louisville, KY

	Labor Trafficking Core Issues	A Criminal Justice Lens	Legal Strategies	Innovative Approaches	Capacity-Building in Services
Workshop 1 1:00–2:30pm (Day 1)	Labor Trafficking 101  Robyn Diez d’Aux, Catholic Charities of Louisville, KY	Forced Engagement in Criminal Activities in Labor Trafficking Cases  Sean Tepfer, HTPU/DOJ, DC Co-Presenter: Attorney TBD, HTPU/DOJ, DC	Tackling Labor Trafficking at the State Level: Initial Outcomes from the Colorado Human Trafficking Council’s Labor Trafficking Task Force  Cate Bowman, Dept. of Public Safety, CO Maria Trujillo, Dept. of Public Safety, CO	Data Driven: Practical Applications and Strategies  Erin Albright, OVC Visiting Fellow, DC Gonzalo Martinez de Vedia, Buffett- McCain Institute, AZ	Labor Trafficking and Domestic Violence Intersectionalities  Lori Cohen, Sanctuary for Families, NY
Workshop 2 3:00-4:30pm (Day 1)	Force, Fraud, and Confusion  Jessica Emerson, Univ. of Baltimore, MD Megan Mattimoe, Advocating Opportunity, OH	Creative Collaborations in Response to Reports of Labor Trafficking  Theresa Nietzel, Erie County Sheriff’s Office, NY Emma Buckthal, Erie County Bar Association Volunteer Lawyers Project, NY	Lessons Learned and Strategies for the Future: Increasing State Court Capacity and Effectiveness in Labor Trafficking Cases  McKinley Wooten Jr., North Carolina Judicial Branch, NC Libby Magee Coles, Justice Matters, NC Marsha Rabiteau, HT Court Solutions, NC Christine Shaw Long, HT Commission, NC	Creative Employment that Empowers  Laura Stevens, Catholic Charities of Louisville, KY	Hidden Pain: Mental Health Challenges Faced by Survivors of Labor Trafficking  Susan Rhema, Threshold Services, KY
Workshop 3 10:00–11:30am (Day 2)	Labor Trafficking: A Closer View of Agriculture and Domestic Work  David Medina, Polaris, DC Lillian Agbeyegbe, Polaris, DC	Beyond the Sex Trafficking Stereotype: Discovering Labor Trafficking  Erin Albright, OVC Visiting Fellow, DC Jessica Emerson, Univ. of Baltimore, MD	Civil Remedies for Survivors of Labor Trafficking  Sarah Bessell, HT Legal Center, DC Fainess Lipenga, National Survivor Network member, MD Hon. Colin Lindsay, Federal Court Magistrate Judge, KY	Noodles, Drinks, and World Peace: How a Small Restaurant in Kentucky is Being Intentional about Creating a Fair and Equitable Work Culture (And Still Making a Profit!)  Mae Suramek, Owner-Operator at Noodle Nirvana, KY	Guiding Principles for Agencies Serving Victims and Survivors of Labor Trafficking  Gretchen Hunt, KY Office of the Attorney General Amy Nace-DeGonda, Catholic Charities of Louisville, KY
Workshop 4 1:00–2:30pm (Day 2)	Labor Law and Trafficking  Erin Albright, OVC Visiting Fellow, DC Gonzalo Martinez de Vedia, Buffett-McCain Institute, AZ	Investigating and Prosecuting Cases in Sex-Based Industries as Labor Trafficking Cases  Sean Tepfer, HTPU/DOJ, DC Co-Presenter: Attorney TBD, HTPU/DOJ, DC	The Pivotal Role of Farm Labor Contractors in Fair Labor Practices  Nancy Hagan, Project No REST, NC	A Frog in a Well  Harold D’Souza, Eyes Open Intl, OH Dancy D’Souza, Eyes Open Intl, OH Jessica Donahue Diah, Eyes Open Intl, OH	Lessons Learned: Effective coordination among service providers in large-group labor trafficking cases  Amy Smith, Intl. Institute, MN Sarah Brenes, Advocates for Human Rights, MN
Workshop 5 3:00–4:30pm (Day 2)	Falling Through the Cracks: When Screening Goes Wrong  John Rafferty, private attorney, PA	What’s Immigration got to do with it? Strategies for Investigating and Prosecuting Cases Involving Immigrant Victims of Labor Trafficking  Jane Anderson, Aequitas, DC	Wage and Hour Need not Apply: Informal Labor and Trafficking  Kate D’Adamo, Give Way to Freedom, MA Jessica Emerson, Univ. of Baltimore, MD	Minnesota’s Response to Youth Victims of Labor Trafficking  Madeline Lohman, Advocates for Human Rights, MN	Collaborating to Access Benefits for Foreign National Labor Trafficking Survivors  Jami Wilson, Catholic Charities of Louisville, KY Amy Nace-DeGonda, Catholic Charities of Louisville, KY Becky Burnside, Catholic Charities of Louisville, KY