

2021 National Labor Trafficking Conference

A hybrid in-person/virtual conference.

In person: Wednesday, October 13 & Thursday, October 14 • Virtual: Friday, October 15, 2021
The Galt House • Louisville, KY

Conference Objectives:

- Increase capacity of organizations to address labor trafficking
- Address trends specific to labor trafficking
- Highlight and problem-solve challenges related to labor trafficking

Sponsorship opportunities available
cclou.org/labor

Conference Content will Include:

- 6 Workshop Tracks: Community Response, Typologies, Data and Research, Innovative Approaches, Capacity-Building in Services, Legal Strategies / Criminal Justice Response
- Typologies: Begging Crews, Agriculture, and Illicit Activities
- COVID-19 and the Impact on Vulnerable Workers
- Leveraging Research and Analysis in Addressing Labor Trafficking
- Voices of Freedom: A Collaboration between OTIP and Storycorp Exploring the Stories of Survivors and the History of the TVPA - A Labor Trafficking Focus
- The Prevalence of Coercion in Labor Trafficking Cases

Register Online Today

In person: $300 early bird starting May 1 - $350 after August 1 • Virtual: $100 starting May 1

Co-Hosted by:

The Southeast Regional Human Trafficking Advisory Group
An Initiative of the Administration for Children and Families Region 4 Office

2021 National Labor Trafficking Conference

Support this great cause. Become a sponsor.

In person: Wednesday, October 13 & Thursday, October 14 • Virtual: Friday, October 15, 2021
The Galt House • Louisville, KY

Sponsorship Benefits		$5,000 Advocate		$2,500 Community		$1,000 Supporter		$500 Friend
Pre-Conference		3 tickets included
Social Media Promotion (Facebook, Instagram)
Logo posted on website
Featured in eblasts promoting event
Included on event flyer
Included in press release
On-Site
Logo on event presentation screen
Logo on event sponsorship signage
Included in day of social media posts
Included on program
Logo on conference photo booth
Corporate item included in goody bag
Mentioned in any media appearances
Post-Conference
Included in thank you eblast
Included in post-event social media posts
Included in internal employee newsletter
Personalized social media post

Interested in sponsorship?

Please contact Darian Decker • ddecker@archlou.org • 502.637.9786 x 304

Sponsorships due by August 1 to be included in print materials

Hosted by:

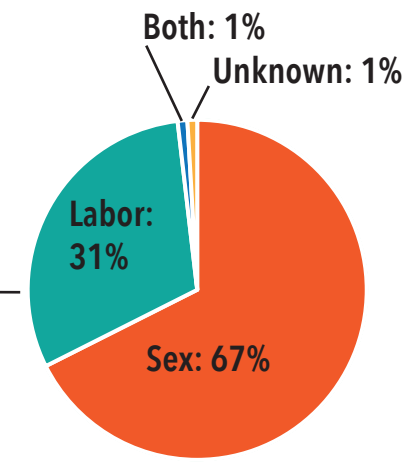

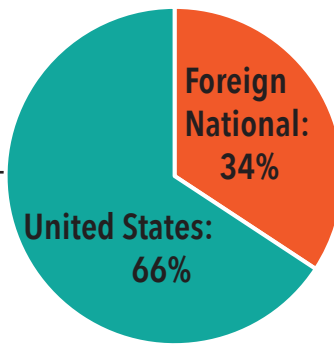

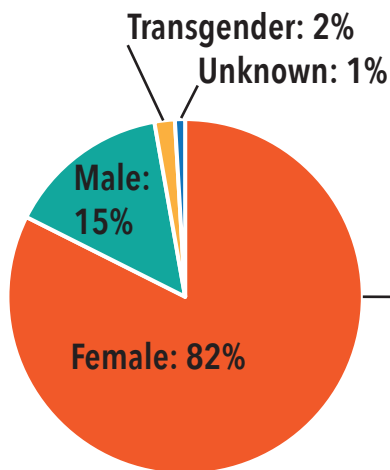

Providing direct assistance and case management to survivors of human trafficking, this program also aims to educate the community about human trafficking, as well as how to identify individuals who are being forced or coerced for the purpose of sexual exploitation or labor.

Human Trafficking Direct Services

Program Participant Demographics

January 2016 to December 2019

108 Total
Program Participants

15 Countries
Represented

11 Languages
Spoken

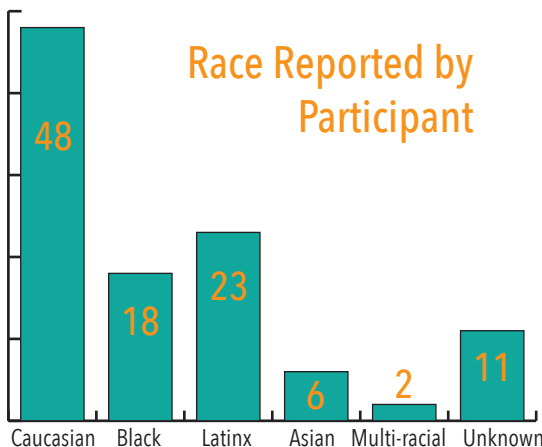

13 LGBTQIA+
People Served

Average length of time engaged
in services:
11.89 Months

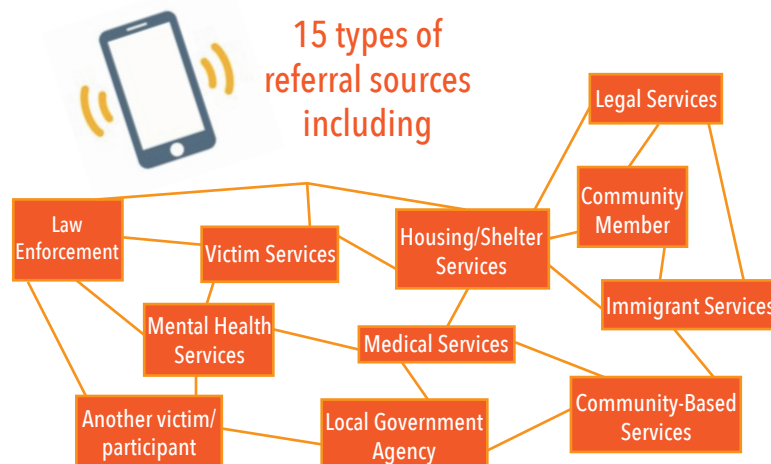

Top Countries of Origin
(Outside of United States)

- Mexico (7)
- Guatemala (7)
- India (4)
- Congo (4)
- Nigeria (3)
- Honduras (3)

Race Reported by Participant

15 types of referral sources including

13 minors
served

Human Trafficking Direct Services

Supportive Services Provided

January 2016 to December 2019

 1643 hours of case management

 293 hours of emotional support

 103 hours of housing advocacy

 78 hours of social services advocacy or explanation of benefits

 25 hours of safety planning

$202,872
in rental assistance

Or 253 months of rent at $800/month

326 instances of healthcare assistance
(medical, dental & mental health)
valued at $12,439

$11,731
used for utilities

Personal care items provided totaling $6,412

$16,345
of food provided

330 instances of interpreter services totaling $5,307

$8,251
in transportation costs

Or 165 bus passes

Legal services totaling $11,886

...and $27,746 spent on various uncategorized direct aid requests.

Services provided to 108 total program participants.

The Bakhita Empowerment Initiative supports survivors of sex and labor trafficking regardless of race, gender, sexual orientation, age, religious preference, language, national origin, immigration status, disability, marital status, or family status.